SYLLABUS–Summer

Pre-Freshman English for Non-English Majors 暑期學前英文

I. Course Description

This 36-hour 2-credit intensive elective course, meeting six hours a day and six days a week, is designed to enrich university freshmen's communicative skills in English required for basic daily-life topics, activities, and situations. In this course, students will develop and enhance their English skills in a learner-friendly and supportive learning environment through a variety of student-centered communicative activities such as listening with Q-&A sessions, dialogues, group discussions, and role-plays. In addition, no traditional pencil-and-paper tests will be used to evaluate students' listening and speaking skills. Instead, the student evaluation will be entirely task-based to maximize opportunities for students to demonstrate their listening, speaking, reading, and writing skills through communication in English.

II. Course Objectives

On completion of the course, students should be able to

- a) demonstrate their communicative skills for catching specific details of basic daily-life topics in both pre-defined and spontaneous daily-life situations by responding to written texts and aural input accurately and appropriately;
- b) demonstrate their communicative skills for a global comprehension of basic daily-life topics in both pre-defined and spontaneous daily-life situations by responding to written texts and aural input accurately and appropriately; and
- c) demonstrate their communicative skills for presenting and discussing basic daily-life topics in pre-defined and prepared oral and written discourses by expressing themselves accurately and appropriately.

III. Course Materials

a) Textbook: Stretch 3A: 6 Skills to Expand Your English, 2nd Edition by S. Stempleski, 2024, Oxford.

b) Supplementary: Instructors' handouts.

* Payment of $600 is due on the first day of the course. This covers the textbook, handout copy fee, and party.

IV. Student Evaluation

- a) Oral 20% (including 2 orals and an English talent show)
- b) English Learning Folder 60% (including 4 daily journals and 4 worksheets)
- c) In-class participation 20%
