Withdrawal or Deferment from a Course / University

- i. Tuition and fees are refundable only by processing a cancellation of enrollment or change of program application through the Academic/Registrar Department and are entirely at the option of the university. Informing your academic department or your instructor does not constitute withdrawal from the course. All withdrawals must be processed by Web Registration or through the Registration Department. The refund amount will be automatically subject to the date of receiving student's course withdrawal or deferment document.
- ii. Students who fail to submit required documents before the deadline of course withdrawal, the refund amount will be automatically subject to the leaving date.
- iii. Other charges are not included in Facilities Fee Payment System, Tuition Fee Payment System, and Semester/Term Fee Payment System.
- iv. The refund amount of deferred student who signs up for less than 9 credit hours will be subject to Tuition Fee Payment System.
- v. Reserved Freshmen and Transferees who manage to pay in full before the stipulated date; he or she decides to withdraw or defer from a course, he or she is eligible to receive a full refund. But, there will be a reduction for processing fee.
- vi. Required documents are the Letter of Deferment from Registrar Department, and a printed copy of saving book.
